

MEET THE HONOREE

KIM ROSSI

Kim Rossi, a devoted and active member of the Junior League of Grand Rapids, is celebrated for her unwavering commitment to the League's mission and dedication to community service. Kim joined the Junior League of Grand Rapids in 1987 and served as President from 1994-1995. Her leadership and tireless efforts have left a lasting mark on the League earning her the Sustainer of the Year award in 2017.

In addition to her involvement with the League, Kim's impact on the community is demonstrated through her dedicated service to the East Grand Rapids Public School District. Kim's commitment to education and youth development is exemplary, being awarded the East Grand Rapids Schools Foundation Community Volunteer of the Year award in 2014. Her enthusiasm for both the Junior League and East Grand Rapids Public Schools underscores her enduring commitment to making her community a better place for all.

Along with recognizing Kim for her accomplishments, the Gala will provide a platform for the Junior League to showcase our work in the community, inspiring guests to further our efforts.
